F.Ili Cigliuti 2013 Barbera d'Alba Campass

Neive, Piedmont

Red wine from Italy

Drinking window: 2016 - 2023

The 2013 Barbera d'Alba Campass emerges from a single parcel within the Cigliuti family's Serraboella's vineyard. Dark, juicy and explosive, the 2013 hits all the right notes, with tons of intensity and exceptional overall balance. Aging in French oak, 50% new, gives the wine soft contours while bringing out the best of this fruit. Lavender, mint and violets round out the dark, super-inviting finish.

I was quite taken with all of the wines I tasted at Cigliuti this year. The Barbarescos once again terrific, but then so are these more affordable options.
