

vinous

91+ pts

F.Ili Cigliuti 2012 Langhe Nebbiolo

Neive, Piedmont

Italy

Drinking window: 2014 - 2022

If there is one of Cigliuti's entry-level wines that is worth an extra bit of effort to find, it is the 2012 Langhe Nebbiolo. A drop-dead gorgeous wine, the 2012 emerges from the glass with sweet red cherries, flowers, mint and spices. The Langhe Nebbiolo is made from parcel in the Erte vineyard and is aged five months in steel and five months in cask. It is essentially Barbaresco with a little less barrel and bottle age than mandated by law. Sweet floral and spice notes add brightness on the finish.

— Antonio Galloni, October 2013

© 2013 Vinous Media

From Piedmont Beyond Barolo and Barbaresco (Oct 2013)

Release price

Not Available

Grape Variety

100% Nebbiolo

Importer

Indigenous Selections, Fort Lauderdale, FL, tel. (954) 530-4021 - indigenouselections.com; David Vincent Selection, Union, NJ, tel. (908) 397-9117 - davidvincentselection.com

Producer

F.Ili Cigliuti

Producer commentary

← back to reviews

